GREAT STEAK GUIDE

To help you pick out your perfect steak and recognise your Rump from your Ribeye, here's a guide to the distinctive taste, texture and character of our classic cuts.

As an extra pointer, we've also dropped in a little suggestion for the side, sauce or wine that we think really makes the cut.

Our classic cuts come from British breeds of cattle reared across the Pampas in South America. These cuts are all aged for a minimum of 28 days and hand cut on site, so you can have your steak as big as you want it – just ask.

Or how about sampling one of our speciality cuts? We have a great selection available sourced from around the globe, from our delicious Deconstructed Beef Wellington to our tender Spiral Cut Fillet.

Our Butcher's Block

As well as our quality classic and speciality steaks, we also source a wide range of unique cuts, each one selected to create a steak special for the season. Fancy trying something a little different?

ASK A MEMBER OF THE TEAM WHAT'S ON OUR BLOCK TODAY.

Fillet TENDER + MILD

The finest cut, located alongside the Sirloin. This area is rarely used by the cattle, so the Fillet remains extremely tender and has a delicately mild flavour. To retain the cut's natural tenderness, we'd suggest serving it medium rare and ideally not cooked past medium well.

Perfect with:
The fresh flavours of our Greek Salad.

Ribeye RICH + SUCCULENT

A timeless cut, Ribeye comes, as it suggests, from the cattle's rib area. It has a wonderfully rich flavour and because it contains soft fat marbling, it is beautifully tender. We think Ribeye is best cooked medium rare or more as this allows the fat to melt into the steak, adding to the rich flavour and giving the steak a lovely succulent texture.

Wash it down with:
A glass or two of the Beefsteak Malbec. This vibrant, spicy red perfectly complements a Ribeye's rich flavour.

RUMP Firm + flavoursome

As the name suggests, Rump is found towards the rear of the cattle. As a working muscle of the cattle, it has a firmer texture and less fat compared to other steaks, but is without doubt one of the most flavoursome cuts. Due to the lack of fat we recommend it be cooked medium rare.

Perfect with:
Our signature Fiery Black Sauce, its spicy kick complements Rump beautifully.

SIRLOIN Tender + full-bodied

The classic 'Loin' cut, Sirloin is taken from the upper middle of the cattle. The region isn't naturally overworked and has a covering layer of fat, so remains beautifully tender. Sirloin is known to be an 'all-rounder', cooking well from rare through to well done. We do however recommend it be cooked medium so the fat melts through the meat.

Wash it down with:
A glass of Berton Black Label Shiraz. This full flavoured, fruity and spicy red is the perfect accompaniment to Sirloin.
