REPORT BY ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF HR AND ORGANISATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

TO:	PERSONNEL COMMITTEE
DATE:	16 MARCH 2022	AGENDA ITEM:	7
TITLE:	REVIEW OF THE COUNCIL'S EMPLOYMENT POLICIES
LEAD COUNCILLOR:	CLLR RUTH MCEWAN	PORTFOLIO:	CORPORATE AND CONSUMER SERVICES
LEAD OFFICER:	SHELLA SMITH	TEL:	74697 / 0118 937 4697
JOB TITLE:	ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF HR AND ORGANISATIONAL DEVELOPMENT	E-MAIL:	shella.smith@reading.gov.uk

1. PURPOSE OF REPORT AND EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

1.1 A review of the Council's employment policy framework is underway which aims to ensure that all employment policies are clear, easy to understand, up to date and reviewed regularly. This report presents five policies, all of which have been reviewed jointly and agreed with the Joint Trade Unions.

1.2 The report includes the following appendices:

- Appendix A: Bullying and Harassment Policy
- Appendix B: Employment Stability Agreement
- Appendix C: Relocation and Accommodation Schemes Policy
- Appendix D: Shift and Unsocial Hours Allowance Policy
- Appendix E: Standby and Call Out Policy
- Appendix F: Equality Impact Assessment

2. DECISION

2.1 That Personnel Committee approve the following revised/new HR policies (detailed in Appendices A to E of this report):

- Bullying and Harassment Policy
- Employment Stability Agreement
- Relocation and Accommodation Schemes Policy
- Shift and Unsocial Hours Allowance Policy
- Standby and Call Out Policy

3. POLICY CONTEXT

- 3.1 Good employment policies should support a culture based on trust, fairness and inclusion. They can also speed the decision-making process by ensuring that clear guidance is readily available to cover a range of employment issues. Further, they can assist in avoiding involvement with employment tribunal claims by providing guidance for managers that reflects accurately current employment law and good practice. It is therefore important that employment policies are clear, easy to understand, up to date and reviewed regularly.
- 3.2 Of the five policies covered in this report, the Relocation and Accommodation Policy is new. The Bullying and Harassment Policy has been updated to include examples of cyberbullying and microaggression. The Employment Stability Agreement has been updated to include examples of pay protection; Shift and Unsocial Hours Allowance Policy; and Standby and Call Out Policy have all been updated with gender neutral language and updated job titles.
- 3.3 ACAS Codes of Practice give authoritative advice in key areas of employment practice. A failure to follow the Code does not make a person or organisation liable to proceedings. However, employment tribunals will take the Code into account when considering relevant cases. Tribunals will also be able to adjust any awards made in relevant cases by up to 25% for unreasonable failure to comply with any provision of the Code (by an employer or an employee).

4. POLICIES COVERED UNDER THIS REVIEW

- 4.1 All employment policies have now been reviewed by the HR and Organisational Development team, apart from the Union Facilities Agreement, which will be presented for approval to Personnel Committee in July 2022, following consultation and negotiation with the Joint Trade Unions. The policies included in this report are:

- Bullying and Harassment Policy
- Employment Stability Agreement
- Relocation and Accommodation Schemes Policy
- Shift and Unsocial Hours Allowance
- Standby and Call Out Policy

4.2 Principles used for conducting this review

- 4.2.1 The policies have been written with the following principles in mind:

1. They must reflect current employment law and the ACAS Codes of Practice and/or guidance where relevant.
2. They must be easy to understand and written in plain English
3. They should be concise. Any information which is not germane to the operation of the policy has been removed. For example, management guidance notes are not included in the policies, but available separately.
4. There should be a consistency of approach across related policies (e.g. same period of notice given to employees to attend formal meetings where relevant)

5. They should use gender neutral language

- 4.3 In future, all employment policies will be reviewed every two years or sooner if legislation requires it.

5. KEY ISSUES AND CHANGES PROPOSED

- 5.1 The table below sets out in summary terms for each of the revised policies the issues which have been addressed together with additional key changes agreed with the Joint Trade Unions. Once the policy review is complete, hyperlinks will be added to the policies where they are cross-referenced with other policies.

Revised Policies

Issues to be addressed
Bullying and Harassment Policy (Appendix A)
Last reviewed in 2018 and updated to include examples of cyberbullying and microaggression.
Employment Stability Agreement (Appendix B)
Drafted in 2018 but agreement could not be reached with the Trade Unions on proposed reduction in pay protection from four years. The policy has now been updated to reflect current employment law and examples of pay protection scenarios have been included.
Shift and Unsocial Hours Policy (Appendix D)
Last reviewed in 2010 and updated to ensure gender neutral language and correct job titles.
Standby and Call Out Policy (Appendix E)
Last reviewed in 2011 and updated to ensure gender neutral language and correct job titles.

New Policy

- 5.2 Relocation and Accommodation Schemes Policy (Appendix C)

- 5.2.1 This policy has been written to assist new employees who need to move to a new house in the Reading area as a direct result of taking up a permanent appointment with Reading Borough Council.

6. PROCESS FOR AGREEING THE NEW AND REVISED POLICIES

- 6.1 The process for agreeing the policies with the joint trade unions has been as follows:

10 February 2022	All draft policies (Appendices A - E) were uploaded to a SharePoint folder for union representatives to review, requesting comments to be added in advance of the meeting on 28 February 2022.
------------------	--

28 February 2022	Meeting with trade unions to review feedback and both policies were agreed subject to amendments.
7 March 2022	Final approval from trade unions received.
16 March 2022	Formal approval noted in the Joint Trade Union Committee minutes

6.2 A communications plan is in place to communicate the revised policies to managers and employees. This will include:

- Daily news items on the intranet and iTrent Employee Self Service (the HR system used by all staff to book leave, submit mileage claims etc) to highlight the revised policies and who to speak to about any queries (i.e. their line manager or HR)
- Highlighted in the weekly email to all staff
- Strategic HR and OD Business Partners/HR Advisers will highlight the revised policies and their implications (for staff and managers) when they attend department management team meetings and 1-1 meetings with managers.
- An email from HR to all line managers to highlight the new policies and explain the changes, and to ask that they discuss them with their staff in team meetings, tool-box talks, 1-1s etc.

7. CONTRIBUTION TO STRATEGIC AIMS

7.1 The new and revised HR policies help to ensure that the Council can meet its Corporate Plan priority, specifically ensuring that the Council is fit for the future.

8. ENVIRONMENTAL AND CLIMATE IMPLICATIONS

8.1 There are no environmental or climate change implications.

9. COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT AND INFORMATION

9.1 The Joint Trade Unions have been consulted on the revised policies.

10. EQUALITY IMPACT ASSESSMENT

10.1 Under the Equality Act 2010, Section 149, a public authority must, in the exercise of its functions, have due regard to the need to:

- eliminate discrimination, harassment, victimisation and any other conduct that is prohibited by or under this Act;
- advance equality of opportunity between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it;
- foster good relations between persons who share a relevant protected characteristic and persons who do not share it.

- 10.2 An Equality Impact Assessment (EIA) has been carried out (see Appendix F) and has found no differential impact on any groups with protected characteristics. Some positive impacts have been identified.

11. LEGAL IMPLICATIONS

- 11.1 Certain employment policies and procedures are specifically needed to comply with legal requirements, for example, a written health and safety policy. Even where a policy or procedure is not specifically required by law, employers often find it helpful to have a policy in place to provide clear guidance that reflects the legal framework for handling the issue in question and it also helps employees to be clear about the organisation's stance on a particular subject. The proposed policies presented in this review reflect current employment law and ACAS Codes of Practice and/or guidance where relevant.
- 11.2 The Council's Constitution confirms that Personnel Committee is responsible for determining the terms and conditions on which staff hold office. The proposed policies will therefore be presented to Personnel Committee for approval, following consultation and negotiation with the trade unions.

12. FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS

- 12.1 There are no financial implications arising from this report.
