Dear Sir

I am writing on behalf of my son and myself regarding the review of the license for the Red Cow.

My name is Heather Jewitt my address is [REDACTED] Regent Street Lutterworth LE17 4 BD. My son Joseph Sharratt lives at the boat yard Frys Island RG1 8DG.

I recently moved to Lutterworth after living in Reading for over 30 years, and often visited the Red Cow for the delicious food and good company. My son continues to be a regular customer.

My son and I are both dismayed to hear about Sangita's unfortunate lapse in judgement regarding the purchase of stolen meat and alcohol. I have always found Sangita to be honest, with a no nonsense approach to running her business. I know she deeply regrets her misguided action and has learned from her mistake.

Sangita knows and understands that prevention of crime and disorder is paramount to her holding a license to sell alcohol, and the threat of losing her business has caused her a great deal of stress and regret. She is concerned about public safety, particularly those of her customers and others within the local community. She is well known for her caring and compassionate nature. Loved by the diverse peoples of Caversham.

We sincerely hope that the review of her license has a favourable outcome and that you take into consideration the strong feelings of her customers who support her wholeheartedly, that she be allowed to continue to provide a much loved local service. She made a mistake, deeply regrets it and hopes, as we all do, that you will look kindly on her case.

Thank you

Heather Jewitt and Joseph Sharratt
