The approved minutes from the OPWG meetings are available from the Older People's Working Group page on the RBC website at:

<http://www.reading.gov.uk/opwg>

Agenda item 3: Matters arising from last meeting on 7th September 2018

Item 6: Street Care and Green Bins

'What is the current rate of council tax that is owed and not collected?'

RESPONSE:

The collection rate for the 2017/2018 Financial Year is as follows:-

Collectable Debit	£93,770,467.48
Net Payments	£91,472,352.78 Credit
% Overall Collection	97.55%

Please be advised that this financial year is still in the process of being collected due to revised retrospective billing or perhaps late payments and clearly the balance will continue to be reduced towards the end of the current financial year.

Minutes on crematorium - thank you for the minutes as a lot of information relevant to Thames Valley Pensioners.

Agenda item 4: Support offered by Utilities Companies

Tania Christie, Thames Water

Emergency services assist people when facing crisis:

- Gas leaks
- Fire
- Police
- Ambulance
- Water leaks
- Power cuts
- Council

Utilities companies are also emergency respondents.

SSEN - Scottish and Southern Electricity Network - all utilities companies are customers of SSEN. SSEN owns the network and has all the equipment to fix a power cut.

There is a strong working relationship between utilities companies to support people who have vulnerabilities in case of an emergency.

Benefits:

Users only have to register just once - they are then added to the Priority Service Register. Preferred communication methods or health issues are recorded.

Ex: In case of a water leak. What do you do if you have a mobility issue? The Priority Register helps utilities companies identify those affected by the water leak who are most vulnerable and provide specific support, i.e. Bottle water station - or deliver water to their home.

Emergency call for water leak (for those on the Priority Register): 0800 009 3652 (not at week ends)

Ex: In case of a power cut. What do you do? Do you get a candle or a torch? If you still have an analogue phone, it works without electricity power and you can make a phone call.

The National Emergency Number for Power Cut is: 105

To get a compensation of £75 for power cut of 12 hours you will need to phone straight away to report that there is a problem

Questions & Answers / Comments:
Q1: if I am on SSE priority register, would I be added to the Thames Water list?
A1: It's in the pipeline, in future people who are on the Priority Register will be looked after by both company. But at the moment, you'll need to register for both companies separately.
Q2: How do you get on the Priority Register?
A2: To be added to the Priority Register you can complete a form (available from SSEN or Thames Water) or call 105 and ask to be passed to the Priority Register team.
Q3: What about at weekends if there is a water leak?
A3: The Thames Water Emergency reporting line 24 hours: 0800 714 614. If you are on the Priority Register, the emergency team will be in touch directly to provide support.

Questions & Answers / Comments:
Q1: Is the service only for people in care homes?
A1: My service is. But there is also a rapid response team to go to people's home to help support people to stay at home
Q2: Specific case. Permission needed to give someone else's authority to assist. No one would come to him.
A2: It comes down to whether he has capacity to make a decision and allow someone to assist.
Q3: Do you pay when you go to a care home and how long do you stay?
It will depend on how much savings you have and it depends on how much the Council can contribute. £800/week to £1600/week depending on the facilities provided. But the standard of care is the same.
Q5: I know someone who had to sell his property to pay for his care.
A5: You will need to contact Social care team for further details
Q6: Of the 16 care homes, how many are for older adults? Are any of your team classed as approved practitioner with specific Master of Public Health (MPH) qualifications?
A6: Yes we have 2 part-time Mental Health nurses who are qualified registered nurses. In Reading area there are 16 care homes, in wider Berkshire 53 care homes - all for older people.

Q7: Local GPs are now sending their own paramedics - who is paying for that service?

A7: GPs pay for the paramedics out of their own budget, which comes from the NHS. This is due to difficulties recruiting GPs and GPs trying to cope with the high level of demands.

Q8: Vast range of languages needed to support people who need it as it will become a greater need, how do you assist?

A8: we have access to translation services and translated leaflets are provided by BHFT.

Comment: A dementia sufferer had to call 999 - Paramedics came with an Occupational Therapist and checks were done to see if the person needed to go to hospital. Much better service as it helps avoid hospital admission.

Agenda item 7: Older People's Day 2018 - feedback and review

Fiona Price, Age UK Berkshire

The theme for the Older People's Day 2018 was 'Bringing people together'. This annual event is on 1st October and is classified as a United Nations International Day of Older People.

There were 4 planning sessions prior to the event. The event was held at Broad Street Mall.

A wide range of organisations were present to provide information and advice - 42 organisations - and a number of activities were included to make the event interactive and fun: Tai Chi, Singing, Tea & Jam, Acting, Creative Writing, Dancing.

Thank you for all those who supported the planning of the event this year.

Publicity was done via printed flyers, social media, word of mouth. Thames Valley TV attended on the day and the event was officially opened by The Mayor.

Between 750-1000 people attended throughout the day. There attendees were from diverse backgrounds. The atmosphere was positive and 'buzzing'. The feedback was generally very positive:

- 24 responses were received on Survey Monkey within 2 weeks after the event
- 100% said they enjoyed the day and found it beneficial to attend

- 92% said they learned more about services in Reading that they were not familiar with
- Organisations said they had contact with between 20-150 people at the event.

People commented that:

- The atmosphere was easy going, fun and informal
- The location was great and the attendance fantastic
- More diverse groups of people attended the event
- The event was well organized
- Many passers-by stopped to find out about services

Some feedback highlighted things that could have been better:

- The area where the organisations had their information stands was cramped and lacked chairs
- It was difficult to hear at times
- More seats were needed
- Acoustics for hearing the microphone and entertainment were poor
- More publicity for the event needed

A quote from an attendee sent to Age UK Berkshire:

Just to let you know that this year's event was very, very good. It was obvious that much planning and energy went into it. It was calm, peaceful, noisy, exciting! Everything about this year's event was GREAT!

Planning for the 2019 event will start in early July - please join in!

Questions & Answers / Comments:
Comment: More needs to be done for older people to get in contact with younger children.
A1: We need to do some work with younger generations. Pen-pals scheme with some local schools to get younger people get connected with older people are happening.
Q2: Were there too many stalls?
A2: The demand was so huge and we wanted to accommodate as much organisations as we possibly could.

Q3: Couldn't Broad Street Mall have given Argos site to use?

A3: Broad Street Mall were brilliant at letting us use the site free of charge. We did have conversations with them about using other rooms but we were not able to use the Argos site as a lease was signed 6 weeks before the event. They will have a change of management soon and maybe we could discuss with them going further.
